

André RoelantsMember of the BlueOrchard Capital and BlueOrchard Finance Boards

André Roelants was appointed Chairman of the Board of Directors of Clearstream International on 10 December 2004. His career in international banking spans forty years. Before joining Clearstream International as President and Chief Executive Officer in July 2001, André spent six years as the CEO of DEXIA Luxembourg and was member of the DEXIA Group Executive Committee. Prior to this, André held senior executive positions at Credit Commercial de Mons, Royal Bank of Canada, Belgium, Banque Sud Belge, Chase Banque de Commerce, Brussels, Chase Manhattan Bank, Copenhagen, Bank of America International, Luxembourg, Cregem International Bank, Luxembourg, and Banque International à Luxembourg. André Roelants was educated at the Institut Notre Dame, Brussels, the Faculté Universitaire Catholique de Mons, the Ecole de Commerce Solvay, the Université Libre de Bruxelles, and the Harvard Business School.